Hand clap

Instrumental (no vocal)

This system is in the key of A-flat major (three flats). It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line has a whole rest in the first measure, followed by a half note A-flat in the second measure, and a whole rest in the third measure. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a bass line with eighth and quarter notes in the left hand. The text "(Hand clap)" is written above the vocal line in the second measure, and "Instrumental (no vocal)" is written below the piano part in the first measure.

Hand clap

This system is in the key of D-flat major (two flats). The vocal line has whole rests in the first and third measures, with a half note D-flat in the second measure. The piano accompaniment continues with a similar rhythmic pattern. The text "(Hand clap)" appears twice, once above the vocal line in the second measure and once above the piano part in the third measure.

A $\flat$

Hand clap

This system returns to the key of A-flat major. The vocal line has whole rests in the first and third measures, with a half note A-flat in the second measure. The piano accompaniment maintains the same rhythmic structure. The text "(Hand clap)" is written above the vocal line in the second measure.
